DATE OF INFO.

1. In February 1950 the Taiwan Staff Training Corps of the 3 Field Army was established in Shanghai, with TS'AI Hsiao-ho (蔡 蕭和) as its head. About 300 trainees, most of whom were Taiwanese officers and men in the 3 Field Army and others who had qualified through examinations, were enrolled in the Corps. The objectives of the training course were to train men for the invasion of Taiwan and to prepare officials for medium and low level administrative posts after the liberation of the island.
2. On 16 August 1950 the Taiwan Staff Training Corps held exercises to mark the completion of the training program. An address was made by JAO Shu-shih, chairman of the East China Military and Political Committee, in which he urged the trainees to continue their efforts toward the liberation of Taiwan.
3. The graduates of the training corps are to be given the following 3 Field Army assignments: (1) the Front Command; (2) the Political Publicity Department; (3) the Political Security Department of the Political Department; (4) the 8, 9, and 10 Army Groups of the 3 Field Army.
